

PARTNERSHIP BENEFITS & REQUIREMENTS

Benefits

For the Representatives

1. Professional Development

- Receive training and develop skills to enhance proficiency and career growth.
- Stay updated on best practices and trends in the field.

2. Leadership and Recognition

- Take on leadership roles and gain recognition within the Collective.

3. Networking Opportunities

- Connect with professionals and experts in international career development.

4. Access to Resources

- Exclusive access to the International Career Collective resources.

5. Exclusive Events and Resources

- Attend exclusive events and access specialized resources.

6. Community Building

- Be part of a supportive community of professionals.

For the Institutions

1. Support for Students

- Equip your team to guide international students in their career development.
- Access to tailored workshops and training programs to further develop your team's ability to provide comprehensive support to international students.
- Connect students globally through the Collective's knowledge-sharing community, expanding opportunities.

2. Improved Outcomes

- Enhance students' career readiness outcomes with offerings from the Collective.
- Contribute to institutional career development and institutional goals.
- Gain access to data analytics and insights from the Collective to inform strategic decisions and enhance overall career outcomes for students.
- Access to more employers who will hire international students.

3. Global Networking

- Increase visibility and exposure on a global scale.
- Facilitate stronger connections with international employers, creating more diverse and robust student job placement opportunities.
- Engage in collaborative projects and initiatives with other partner institutions, fostering a supportive community for sharing ideas and best practices.

4. Institutional Visibility

- Showcase your institution's commitment to international student success through promotional opportunities within the Collective's events and trainings.
- Increase brand recognition globally, positioning your institution as a leader in international career development.
- Join a knowledge hub within the Collective, encouraging the exchange of innovative ideas and strategies for improving career services.

International Career Collective

Requirements

1. Enrollment

- A partner institution should have a significant population of international students (For more information, visit FAQs).

2. Designated International Career Coaches

- A partner institution should have experts who specialize in international student career guidance.
- A partner institution's experts should be willing and able to provide training to career services professionals or faculty working with international students.
- A partner institution's experts should be capable of sharing their expertise with ICC partners and members through workshops, training, thought leadership, etc.
- A partner institution's experts should be willing to posting on social media outlets/increase the visibility of the ICC through their personal networks and thought leadership.

3. Industry Connections

- A partner institution should have proven partnerships with international employers or organizations for internships, co-op programs, or job placements.
- A partner institution should have dedicated staff (Employer Engagement Team) to foster and maintain these connections.

4. Career Development Initiatives

- A partner institution should be able to showcase the implementation of innovative programs and initiatives to enhance international students' career development and employability.
- A partner institution should be willing to co-create initiatives, share resources, and exchange best practices.

5. Data and Feedback Collaboration

- A partner institution should be willing to share data and feedback related to international student career outcomes from the ICC events.
- A partner institution should be able to participate in collaborative efforts to analyze and improve career services based on data-driven insights.

6. Community Outreach and Support

- A partner institution should be willing to be involved in community outreach to support the branding and work of the ICC.
- A partner institution should be willing to promote the ICC and the events to their stakeholders (students, employers, sponsors, etc.)
- A partner institution should be willing to posting on social media outlets/increase the visibility of the ICC through their networks and communities.

7. Recruitment of International Students

- A partner institution should be willing to hire international candidates within their institutions and its facilities.

International Career Collective

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS & REQUIREMENTS

Benefits

For the Representatives

1. Professional Development

- Receive training and develop skills to enhance proficiency and career growth.
- Stay updated on best practices and trends in the field.

2. Networking Opportunities

- Connect with professionals and experts in international career development.

4. Access to Resources

- Exclusive access to the International Career Collective resources.

For the Institutions

1. Support for Students

- Equip your team to guide international students in their career development.
- Access to tailored workshops and training programs to further develop your team's ability to provide comprehensive support to international students.
- Connect students globally through the Collective's knowledge-sharing community, expanding opportunities.

2. Improved Outcomes

- Enhance students' career readiness outcomes with offerings from the Collective.
- Contribute to institutional career development and institutional goals.

3. Institutional Visibility

- Showcase your institution's commitment to international student success through promotional opportunities within the Collective's events and trainings.
- Join a knowledge hub within the Collective, encouraging the exchange of innovative ideas and strategies for improving career services.

International Career Collective

Requirements

1. Enrollment

- A member institution should have a significant population of international students (For more information, visit FAQs).

2. Designated International Career Coaches

- A member institution should have at least one career coach willing to support international students or to learn best practices to provide quality career services to this population.

3. Potential for Growth

- A member institution should be willing to work towards improving career services and support for international students.
- A member institution must demonstrate potential for growth and development in the career services offered to international students.

4. Data and Feedback Collaboration

- A member institution should be willing to share data and feedback related to international student career outcomes from the ICC events.